

AMBER GOLDHAMMER

Amber Goldhammer is best known for creating vibrant abstract paintings with a street art edge. She originally started painting with pigments, powders, and waxes and went on to experimenting with mixed mediums and processes to keep evolving her artworks. As love and joy are paramount emotions in life, Amber hopes her series incorporating the “I Love You” message expands to reach a wide audience. Connecting people through public art is one way she believes her street murals can impact lives, as it is impossible to view her work and not feel a sense of joy and love.

Building upon layers of bold colors and sweeping gestural movements, her newest work includes positive messages of love and hope, written in a graffiti-style script. The new mixed-media series is a testament to Goldhammer’s own emotive interpretation of the ebb and flow of her life’s experiences. She frequently draws inspiration for her palette from the colors of the Southern California ocean, saying, “I get to take in the essence of the ocean every day, which fuels my creativity and brings me peace.”

Painting a convergence of color and emotion, she builds and layers bold colors organically, allowing the process to determine the outcome. There is no analyzing, conceptualizing, or judging that takes place. It all happens in the moment as a union between her, the canvas, and the paint.

An internationally collected young artist with ongoing concurrent exhibitions in galleries throughout the United States and Switzerland, Goldhammer’s artworks have been exhibited at major international art fairs and have had increasing global success. Her artworks have been showcased in acclaimed publications, and on such TV series as “Million Dollar Listing,” “Being Mary Jane,” “The Catch”, Netflix’s best original series, “G.L.O.W.” as well as both multi-Emmy® nominated series, “Crazy Ex- Girlfriend”, and “Scandal.” Goldhammer’s artworks been acquired by renowned art collectors and celebrities such as Graeme Hart, Allison Scarinzi, Joanna Noëlle Levesque (known as JoJo) and Peter Dodd.
