AMBER GOLDHAMMER

Amber Goldhammer is best known for creating vibrant, abstract paintings, sometimes with a street art edginess. She originally started painting with pigments, powders, and waxes and went on to experimenting with different mediums and processes to keep evolving her artworks.

Amber Goldhammer delved into the illusive and captivating movement of Fusionart, following a study with art mentor Rassouli. This journey brought her to her unique artistic vision. The artistic expression of a Fusion artist flows from the heart, and reflects what is felt rather than what is observed. With a well-balanced and dynamic style, she creates fluid beauty in simple yet complex abstraction.

Building upon layers of bold colors and sweeping gestural movements, her newest work includes positive messages of love and hope, written in a graffiti-style script. The new mixed media series is a testament to Amber's own emotive interpretation of the ebb and flow of her life's experiences.

Currently living in Santa Monica CA, she frequently draws inspiration for her palette from the colors of the ocean, saying, "I get to take in the essence of the ocean every day, which fuels my creativity and brings me peace."

As love and joy are paramount emotions in one's life, Amber hopes her new series incorporating the "I Love You" message expands in various forms to reach a wider audience. Connecting people through the visual language of public art is one way she believes her street murals can impact lives, as it is impossible to view her work and not feel a sense of joy and love.

Painting a convergence of color and emotion, she builds and layers bold colors organically, allowing the process to determine the outcome. There is no analyzing, conceptualizing, or judging that takes place. It all happens in the moment, as a union between her, the canvas, and the paint.

With ongoing concurrent exhibitions in galleries throughout the United States and Switzerland, Amber has also shown her works at major international art fairs. Her artworks have been showcased in print and online publications, and on such TV series as "Million Dollar Listing," "Being Mary Jane," "The Catch" as well as both multi-Emmy® nominated series, "Crazy Ex- Girlfriend", and "Scandal." Goldhammer's art is also featured on the Netflix's best original series, "G.L.O.W." by "Weeds" creator, Jenji Kohan.
