EDITH KONRAD

Swiss artist Edith Konrad has studied in numerous master classes with artists from Germany and Italy. She paints on the cutting edge of figuration and abstraction, mostly with acrylic on canvas, collage and mixed media. Konrad uses subtle and harmonic colors and layered textures to create an extraordinary depth and amazing balance in her paintings. Her artworks have been exhibited internationally, including many art fairs such as Montreux, Geneva, Salzburg, Rotterdam, Marbella, Porto Ceresio, Los Angeles, Toronto and Paris.

In 2007 her art was acquired by the State Museum Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada. She won the 2009 Palm Art Award, a Certificate of Excellence for outstanding artistic quality and originality of the work. In 2010 she exhibited at the Salon de la Culture at the Louvre in Paris, France.
