

PETE KASPRZAK

An Advertising & Communications graduate from Mohawk College in Hamilton, Toronto native Pete Kasprzak first gained his artistic experience as the college's in-house agency Creative Director. Later, while working as a Senior Graphic designer at Dot & Dash, he designed and produced graphics for Holt Renfrew, Coca-Cola's FUZE, Calvin Klein, The Bay, as well as Gwen Stefani and Shania Twain.

Pete Kasprzak's vibrant style that has caught the interest of numerable art collectors, art blogs, TV shows, and newspapers across Canada and the United States. His artworks express energy and life in new and innovative ways. He adds dynamic movement and texture with oil and acrylic paint on his mixed media cityscape artworks.

Kasprzak won the People's Choice Award at The Artist Project Toronto, one of North America's largest shows. Most recently, he created a centerpiece for SKAM Artist studios, DJ Erick Morillo, and continues to photograph urban scenery while exploring Los Angeles.

"Every artwork I create is unique and portrays a symbolic visual of the urban culture I see. I give my photographs depth and movement with carefully chosen brush strokes lain on top of them."
