PETE KASPRZAK

Pete Kasprzak's passion for city life is expressed in his dynamic urban artworks.

An Advertising & Communications graduate from Mohawk College in Minnesota, Toronto native Kasprzak first gained his artistic experience as the college's in-house agency Creative Director. Later while working as a Senior Graphic designer at Dot & Dash, Pete designed and produced graphics for: Holt Renfrew, Coca-Cola's FUZE, Calvin Klein, The Bay, as well as Gwen Stefani and Shania Twain.

Pete Kasprzak's vibrant style that has caught the interest of numerable art collectors, art blogs, TV shows, and newspapers across Canada and the United States. His artworks express energy and life in new and innovative ways. He adds dynamic movement and texture with oil and acrylic paint on his mixed media cityscape artworks.

Pete won the "People's Choice Award" at The Artist Project Toronto, one of North America's largest shows. Most recently, Pete's created a center piece for: SKAM Artist studios, DJ Erick Morillo, and continues to photograph urban scenery while exploring Los Angeles.

"Every artwork I create is unique and portrays a symbolic visual of the urban culture I see. I give my photographs depth and movement with carefully chosen brush strokes lain on top of them."
